

T.W. LEWIS FOUNDATION

Our Purpose

The purpose of the T.W. Lewis Foundation is to improve the quality of life for others by helping people and organizations reach their potential

Our Mission

To support children and families in need.
To impact youth through Christian education and character development.
To improve our community by supporting civic and cultural organizations.
To strengthen America by supporting faith, family, freedom, and patriotism.

A Symbol of Commitment

T.W. Lewis Foundation is symbolized by the life-size bronze statue title “Once Upon a Time” by Marianne Caroselli. This artwork is located at the T.W. Lewis Corporate office and represents the Foundation’s commitment to children and education.

Our Giving Philosophy

The Giving Philosophy of T.W. Lewis Foundation is:

We believe in supporting organizations that are effective, receptive and grateful.

We believe in helping others with our work, wisdom, wealth, and witness.

We believe in supporting organizations that want to reach their potential.

We believe in having a plan and setting goals for our gifts.

We believe in giving a portion of the need and for a limited amount of time.

We believe in measuring the impact of our gifts.

We believe in building relationships with the people we serve.

We believe in leading by example and inspiring generosity in others.

We believe in fostering the growth of Judeo-Christian values.

We believe in traditional American values, family, and faith.
