

Our Purpose

The purpose of the T.W. Lewis Foundation is to improve the quality of life for others by helping people and organizations reach their potential.

A Symbol of Commitment

T.W. Lewis Foundation is symbolized by the life-size bronze statue titled "Once Upon a Time" by Marianne Caroselli. This artwork is located at the T.W. Lewis corporate office and represents the Foundation's commitment to children and education.

OUR GIVING PHILOSOPHY

We believe in supporting people that want to reach their potential.

We believe in supporting organizations that are effective, receptive, and grateful.

We believe in supporting projects that will make a significant difference.

We believe in giving a portion of the need and for a limited amount of time.

We believe in having a plan, setting goals and getting the maximum impact from our gifts.

We believe in connecting personally with the people we serve.

We believe in measuring our success by the number of lives we change.

We believe in helping people and organizations with our financial support, our time and our talents.

We believe in considering new approaches to help solve old problems.

We believe in leading by example and hope to stimulate generosity in others.
